FACTS & FANCIES

Frank Fairborn, Jr.

FORTUNATE CANADA!

It should never occur to the mind of anyone being canvassed to buy Victory Bonds, that in the purchase there is any real sacrifice. No people in the world have had it softer than in this Dominion, magnificent as has been the contribution. Outside of the gallant fighting services, the airmen, the sailors and the soldiers Canada for almost five years has been going on the even tenor of the ordinary way of life.

To-day, there is not even rationing of meat, and there surely has been no hardship from any of the rationing orders. Why call it a sacrifice when a man or woman has an instalment taken out of the weekly pay which creates a nestegg at three per cent. interest for the future rainy day?

As one writer well asks: Have we had to go hungry? Have we lost our homes, seen them tumble in ruins about us, burying some of our loved ones in a terrible pyre of flaming rubble? Have we had to live with even the fear of foreign feet tramping our soil?

Have we lain awake the long dark nights, shaken and fearful of what fresh horror and torment the morning will bring? Have we had to watch our children die, swollen with starvation and rotting with disease, If you permit him to make love to you, he while we stand helplessly by, cursing in futility the war that has brought these things to be?

No, the war has not meant this to us. And yet we prize of "sacrifice" when we are asked to live a little less well, perhaps, so that we may lend our money to the support of the Victory Loan.

If they were in our shoes, the people of the conquered lands, the people of the countries in front line of battle, would they call it "sacrifice" to spend a little less, to give up a few pleasures, if it would help to slay this monster, gorged with the life-blood of tortured thousands, who still threatens the world?

The war is not won, but it will be. There is no legal compulsion to buy Victory Bonds; it is still a free country. But there is a very strong moral compulsion, on every citizen, to subscribe to the Victory Loan. It cannot be escaped. It is a duty to the cause to which the country is committed, the cause of freedom; it is a duty to those who have made the supreme sacrifice and to many others who will give their lives. And it is a duty to the young Canadians in the years to come, to see to it that they shall not go forth into the shambles and that aggression shall be wiped clean from this earth.

That, in essence, is what the Victory Loan means. Its appeal cannot be denied.

SO.—BE CAUTIOUS, GIRLS!

Men are what women marry. They have two hands, two feet, and sometimes two wives. But never more than one dollar or one idea at a time. Like turkish cigarettes, they are all made of the same material; the only difference is, that some are better disguised.

Generally speaking, they may be divided into three classes, husbands, bachelors and widowers. A bachelor is an eligible mass of obstinacy entirely surrounded by suspicion. Husbands are of three types: Prizes, Surprises and Consolation Prizes. Making a husband out of a man is one of the highest forms of plastic art known to civilization. It requires science, sculpture, common sense, faith, hope and charity, mostly charity.

It is a psychological marvel that a small, tender, soft, violet scented thing like a woman should enjoy kissing a big, awkward, stubby-chinned, tobacco and bay-rum scented thing like a man.

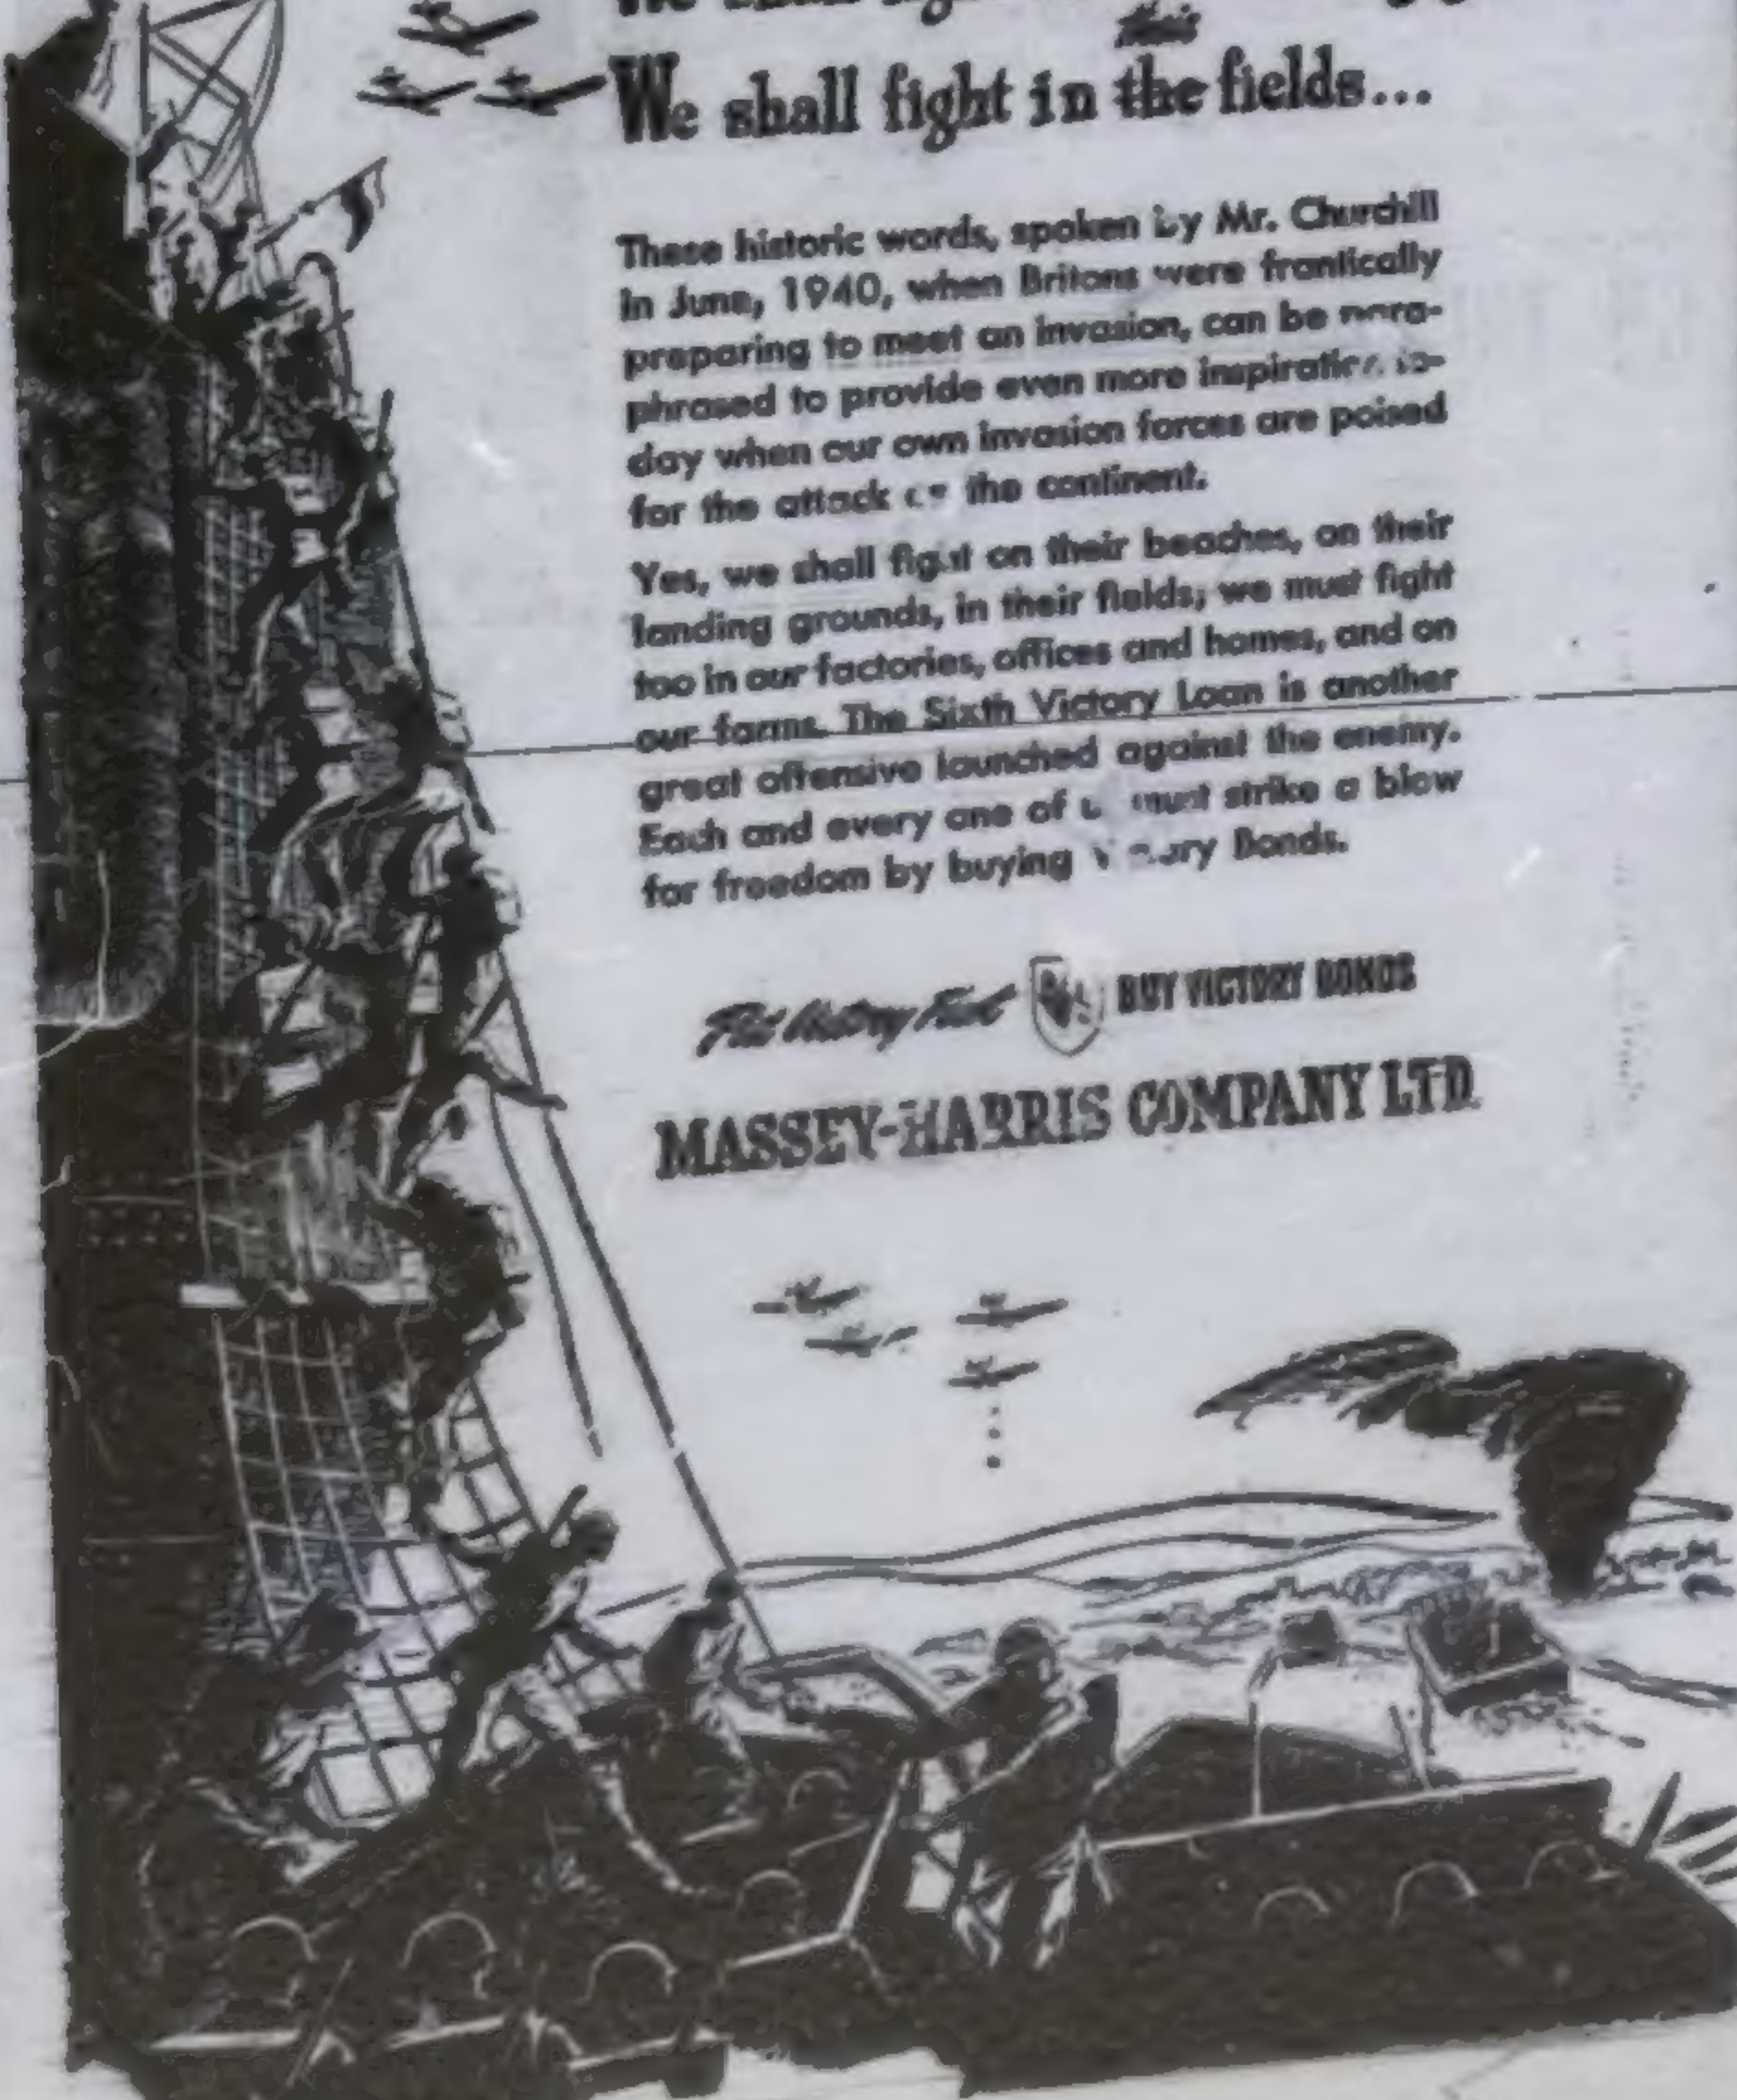

If you flatter a man, you frighten him to death. If you don't you bore him to death.

We shall fight on the beaches
We shall fight on the landing grounds
We shall fight in the fields...

These historic words, spoken by Mr. Churchill in June, 1940, when Britons were frantically preparing to meet an invasion, can be paraphrased to provide even more inspiration to-day when our own invasion forces are poised for the attack on the continent.

Yes, we shall fight on their beaches, on their landing grounds, in their fields; we must fight too in our factories, offices and homes, and on our farms. The Sixth Victory Loan is another great offensive launched against the enemy. Each and every one of us must strike a blow for freedom by buying Victory Bonds.

gets tired of you in the end. If you don't he gets tired of you in the beginning.

If you believe him in everything, you cease to interest him. If you argue with him everything, you cease to charm him. If you believe all he tells you, he thinks you are a fool. If you don't he thinks you are a cynic.

If you wear gay colors, rouge and a striking hat, he hesitates to take you out. But if you wear a little brown beret and a tailored suit, he takes you out and stares all evening at women in gay colors, rouge and striking hats.

If you join in the quietness and approve of his drinking, he swears you are driving him to the devil. If you don't approve of his drinking and argue with him to give up his quietness, he vows you are a snob and "too nice."

If you are a clinging vine type, he doubts whether you have a brain. If you are a modern, advanced, independent woman, he doubts whether you have a heart. If you are silly, he longs for a bright mate. If you are brilliant and intellectual, he longs for a playmate.

Man is just a WORM in the dust. He comes along, wriggles around for a while and finally some chicken gets him.

Penned and Pilfered

Many concerns that have waited for business to come to them without advertising, have had to wait a long time.

Blessing on thee, Little hen; thou hast satisfied my yen for thy product, fried and poached; golden hen-fruit, unapproached when the article is rare, pleases at a dime a pair.

It is pretty hard for a ball team to win games unless it shows enthusiasm, and it is hard for a community to win progress unless it shows similar enthusiasm for good home town causes.

We Must Not Let Our Fighting Men Down

We've Got to BUY MORE

VICTORY BONDS

Of course we've been asked to buy bonds before . . . and we've bought bonds before. We're asked to buy bonds again . . . and we must buy them again. Facts must be faced . . . this community is not doing the job it is expected to do.

There is no letting-up on the fighting fronts. Action increases day by day. But our fighting men are conscious of their job . . . to carry on until victory is won. They will finish the job, and we must help them. Compared to their job ours is an easy one.

WE ARE ONLY ASKED TO LEND OUR MONEY

We are not asked to give anything. We are only asked to save . . . and lend. That does not entail much hardship. (After all, we save our money and invest it in Victory Bonds, we are doing something for our own personal benefit.) Surely we can do this much.

Most of us are earning more . . . We can save more. And the need is urgent. Canada's war bills are mounting day by day. Others are risking their lives. We must provide the money.

YOU ARE NOT DOING YOUR PART UNLESS YOU ARE BUYING BONDS—AND YOU ARE NOT DOING YOUR PART UNLESS YOU ARE BUYING

All The Bonds You Can

If you haven't the cash, remember you can buy Victory Bonds on convenient deferred payments and pay for them as you earn the money, over a period of six months. Fulfill your obligations to the men who are fighting.

ship "to continue this present clip, our system will be free of all annuity within the next three or four years. Of course there something might happen that would upset our plans, but so far as we can see that would only be An Act of God, such as a terrible bust up in the Ontario supply system which would cause a raise in horse power rates from the present $25 a horse power, or a terrific storm that would cause great damage to our own system."

When questioned about rates Mayor Johnson said "there has been a slight adjustment at the present rates but they principally concern water heaters and the difference is so slight that no one will ever notice it. Our present rates cannot be reduced as long as there are debentures outstanding. As soon as our last debenture is paid off we should have a cut in rates from a third to one-half, providing of course that the revenue of the Navy League News

Miss Marion Gibson's Knitting class will meet on Friday this week for the last time; re-opening in October for the winter session. We hope the young members of this class will continue with their good work during the summer, handing in their work to our rooms on completion.

Miss Marion Gibson will arrange to take regular members of her class to Mrs. Moore's theatre one evening shortly.

On Saturday this week, May 6th, our rooms will be used as headquarters by our friends, the I.O.D.E. for their Tag Day. Mrs. G. Warner, convener, will be in charge.

DO YOU KNOW?

That the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire is nationally organized, with National Headquarters in Toronto, Provincial Offices in each Province, and Primary Chapters in hundreds of communities from coast to coast?

That the first clothing to reach Britain in this war to aid bombed victims came from the I.O.D.E. in Canada?

That your local Chapter called a mass meeting of the people of Grimsby only eight days after Canada entered the war to organize members of the District for war work, and collect clothing for the bombed victims in Britain?

That from this meeting over $200.00 worth of clothing was collected, and the local branch of the Red Cross was formed?

That the local Chapter has kept an accurate record of enlistments of men and women from this District since the beginning of the war?

That a box is given each recruit on enlisting, consisting of a pair of socks and 2 handkerchiefs for each man, and a sewing kit for each girl?

That comforts are sent all local men and women on active service, twice a year, and this cost about $800.00 last year, in addition to which, cigarettes and comforts were sent to local prisoners-of-war, also much other war work was done?

That the Chapter has a prisoner-of-war liaison officer who visits the next of kin, and is constantly in touch with them?

That the Chapter has an ex-service personnel committee, whose duty is to be informed of government rehabilitation plans, to co-operate with local rehabilitative committees, and assist in every way possible, the men and women as they return from active service?

That in spite of all its war work, the Chapter has never neglected its peace time activities of advancing the cause of education, child and family welfare, and good citizenship, sponsoring two Girl Guide Companies and a Brownie Pack?

That all this takes money, and the Chapter is counting on you for your royal support of its TAG DAY, Saturday, May 6th?

Grimsby Follows Proper Policy

Speaking before the Lions Club, at their dinner meeting in The Village Inn, on Tuesday evening, Mr. M. J. Smith, President and General Manager of The Equitable Life Insurance Co., an outstanding authority on Town Planning, stated that from what he could learn Grimsby municipal officials had been following out a stable and correct policy in reducing their tax rate and that policy should be pursued in the future.

He stated that many people were inclined to move out into rural districts and build on account of the low tax rate. If Grimsby keeps its tax rate low the people will build in town and will come from outside points to buy and build. Also advocated that all vacant houses in the town be built up before any move should be made to extend the boundary lines.

Mr. Weir was completing his report to the county council on an inspection of the roads made last week by the special roads committee of council, consisting of W. E. Headley, George Montgomery, Joseph Hills, Warden N. D. Miller and Mr. Weir.

He said that in general the roads this year are better than might have been expected, in view of the fact that little material could be purchased last year for maintenance.

Boy Scouts

A very interesting meeting was held by the Scouts on Monday night last. Patrol corners were buzzing with activity as the patrols instructed their patrols in knot tying, first aid and other scout tests. The honour patrol flag for the month was won by the wolf patrol under the leadership of Leon Beutner. The dodge ball game was exciting and fast and although several received bumps and knocks, the 3 games were enjoyed by all.

It is necessary for us to postpone our parents' night programme to Friday night, May 19th instead of May 12th due to the Blossom Time Festival being on that night. Parents are requested to note the change of night. 7:30 p.m. sharp. Patrols are planning for your entertainment. This will also be our closing night for Scouting in Grimsby for the summer months at the High Schools. Patrol leaders and seconds will plan for individual patrol activities periodically during the summer. Don't forget parents night Friday night, May 19th. Your boy and neighbours boy will be proud to have you there.

CUBBING

Two new chums, Kenneth Blanchard and Alton Mitchell were welcomed at last week's meeting. Preparations were made for Parents' night which is to be held this Friday, May 20th, at 7:30 p.m. in the High School Gymnasium. All those interested in Cubbing will be welcomed. Come and see what the Pack is doing.

THE GRIMSBY INDEPENDENT

The Paper From Old Home To'n

Grimsby Lad Sits In Great Canadian Press News Disseminating Centre And Reads The Independent.

Beaver Club,
London, Eng.
8-4-41.

The Editor,
Grimsby Independent,
Dear Sir:

For quite some time now I have been going to write you a letter of thanks for sending my home paper. To me just "thanks" doesn't seem to be enough. I only wish you could realize the value of one of your papers. I read every page over and over again. One thing certain is that I am not the only one over here who does so. It means a lot to us to know what is going on. Even to see what is playing at Moore's, is of great interest.

I received my first edition a few weeks ago. I sat in the office of the Canadian and was on Fleet Street and read it through and through. I must have looked foolish to some people, sitting there reading a paper three or four weeks old—especially in a place where the latest news is coming in every minute. And yet I got more enjoyment out of that paper than I do reading the news as it comes in.

It is a grand feeling to know that the people at home are thinking of you and trying to make things easy.

I am a photographer with Public Relations over here now. It is a very interesting job and will become more so in the future. But the most interesting moments are when I am able to sit down and read the good old "Independent".

So once again I want to thank you. "Thank You" don't seem much, but believe me it comes from the bottom of my heart.

Hugh Thompson.

Is Back Home

Major Eric R. and Mrs. Johnson, received a cable from their son Sergt. Max on Wednesday stating that he had arrived "back home in Britain" after considerable service in the Mediterranean area.

Sergt. Johnson enlisted in September 1939 and went overseas in December of that year. He was at Dunkirk with Brig.-Gen. Armand A. Smith when his division was evacuated by an eyelash. He has seen service all over the British Isles and now calls Britain "home".

Real Estate

C. H. Boyd is the purchaser of the fine, large brick house at 76 Main east, opposite Maple avenue, from Miss Sybil Armstrong, Fort Meyers, Florida.

Charles J. Evans has disposed of his 1½ acre grocery, south of his house, on Elizabeth street, near the main house, to a Timmins man, Jas. J. Theal negotiated the deal.

Clarence Smith has sold his house and lot on Fairview avenue to Arthur Seeley of Grange.

Establishes A Game Preserve

After some five years of patient planting and planning, Harry Russ of Clinton township, has now one of the nicest and natural two-acre wild game preserves in the district.

Harry reforested these two acres on his father's farm just outside Beaminville, and several ponds of water are located in the preserve. Wild geese, peacock, wild doves, wood ducks, golden, silver and Lady Amherst pheasants are some of the denizens now climatized within the wire enclosures of the Russ sanctuary.

Restaurateur Has Novel Job

Suzanne Boswell, pretty, petite and blonde, has a novel and exciting role in World War II. French born, she came to this country as a bride after World War I, and now is manageress at Herren's restaurant on Luckie Street, Atlanta, Ga. Every so often, she receives a call from the Red Cross, the U.S.O. or similar agency, with the request "We've got a party of French Officers over here, they're just passing through, and have to wait between trains. They're going out to eat, and are dying to talk with someone from home. Can you reserve a table for us there?"

Can she? Mrs. Boswell fairly exudes delight. In a few minutes the Frenchmen arrive with their animated greetings and rush of sparkling conversation. It works wonders as a morale builder, and Mrs. Boswell finds her day has been made brighter and happier.

Mrs. Boswell is a sister of Wm. Falk, 8 Adelaide Street, Grimsby.

stolen from the Current & Belzner hardware store a few minutes earlier.

The two under arrest are Walter Alfred Marquadt, 18, of Egansville, and Rupert Hawkins, 16, of E.A. 3, Smithville. Police said that Hawkins told them that Marquadt is his uncle.

Constable Bowen's suspicions were aroused by seeing the two lads coming out of a lane beside the store. When he walked toward them they ran. He gave chase and captured Hawkins a block away and took him to the police station. Constable Alfred LePage then joined in the search for the other youth and within an hour the two officers placed him under arrest on the Mountain road. Later, Marquadt accompanied the officers to Mountain street, where several boxes of ammunition were found hidden near the Baptist Church. Police were unaware of the break-in at the time the first lad was apprehended.

Failing to make the curve on Main street at the Livingston avenue intersection shortly after midnight, a Direct-Winters tractor-trailer transport, in charge of Victor Clay, St. Catharines, overturned on F. J. McPhail's lawn. Clay escaped with a bump on the head and a shaking up. Constable Alf LePage investigated.

Claiming that he was out of work, could not secure any and having no home, William Barnes, 69, of Stratford, wanted to go to jail so he took the means of getting there by hurling a rock through one of the Bank of Commerce windows. He explained to Chief Turner the reasons for so doing. In St. Catharines police court on Friday morning Magistrate Campbell gave the old man 30 days. He asked for a year.

are not asked to give your money. You are asked to lend it—to invest it—at three per cent interest upon the best security in the Dominion of Canada.

This is your opportunity to put your savings to work—for your own future security, which is intricately bound up in that of your country, as well as for your peace of mind.

And so I urge you, when the salesman calls at your door, that you have a thought for those 450 of our young men and women who are fighting your war, and that you dig down deep into your savings, deeper than you ever have before.

This is your native land, too.

PETER A. GRAHAM

the farmers of Canada are doing a real job. But, we must not stop at the production of foodstuffs. We must take every dollar that we can produce from the soil and possibly afford and place it in Victory Bonds, to back up our own flesh and blood, that are soaring through the air; riding the billowy oceans; slopping through the mud on land, to protect you and me; to protect their home land; their land, your land.

The Bible tells us that there was corn in Egypt. Had it not been for Montgomery and the 8th Army, there would not have been any corn in Canada, let alone Egypt, 18 months ago.

We are in the happy position today, that we till our fields and harvest our crops in absolute security. Why? Because, the boys and girls of Canada, of Lincoln county, the 450 boys and girls of Grimsby and North Grimsby, have made it possible for us to do so.

Are YOU? Am I? Going to let those boys and girls down. They courageously and cheerfully are offering their all—their lives if need be, for Lincoln, for Canada, for the Commonwealth, for the World. The least we can do, and it is indeed little in comparison, is to provide the dollars that produce the vital necessities of war for them to fight with.

Their fighting is our salvation. Lincoln county has never failed in any war effort yet, whether it be men or money. Either in the last war or this war and I hope that we will never live to see the day that Old Lincoln fails.

This is not a case of giving your dollars, as our young men and women offer to give their lives. It is only a case of loaning your dollars, in order to back them up, in their sincere endeavors to protect you and yours and their home land.

If you don't plant the seed, you can never reap the harvest. If we don't back Canada to the last dollar, we may never enjoy Freedom again, and Freedom is our harvest.

Dogs and humans are very much alike, says a psychiatrist. Yes, but a dog seldom bites the hand that feeds him.

GRAY COACH LINES

"V" Mail

HER letter will soon be speeding on its way to a little rubble-strewn village in Italy, part of the Canadian front line . . . strange how writing these letters seemed to bring her son so much nearer. She thought of him as the little fellow he once was, as she wrote the address: Captain Martin Upper. She knew, with a mother's heart, the importance of these letters to him . . . how he eagerly looked for news from home. She understood how the upheaval of war could cause recollections of home to seem very dim. She knew, too, that the winning of the peace was a desperate task.

Martin's mother wrote about the plant, where Martin had been employed before the war, and of the men with whom he had worked. Martin was proud of the plant . . . fond of his shopmates. It was for the security of his job, and the men in the plant, that he was enduring the hardships of the battlefield.

"Martin, some of your friends were in to see me," she wrote. "They told me that the Sixth Victory Loom was going good in the plant. They say they are going to exceed their quota as usual." Martin had written how proud he was of the plant's Victory Loom records. She remembered he had said: "The good old plant . . . all of the boys . . . Tony, Jack and Eddie. I knew they would never fail us over here." He was sure they would reach their objective, and more. He knew that was the way Dolardo took did things.

Martin's mother could picture him, somewhere beneath the shadows of towering mountains, upon the other side of which waited the enemy. But Martin and his men would be unafraid. The towering peaks were not so foreboding. He had told her that her letters gave him renewed faith and courage. He knew that a powerful force for Victory was at work back home . . . there could be no doubt about the eventual outcome . . . they could not fail.
